2. Government Recognition: Representatives from Visual Aids/OL have informed us that the new clerical brochure which has just been printed merits consideration in the field of graphics design. It is being entered in an exhibit of Government design which is sponsored by the Federal Design Council. The aim of the competition is to present unique design solutions which have been developed in response to the Government's need to communicate effectively with the public. The editor of the publication is Miss [redacted] OP. The designer is Miss [redacted] Visual Aids/OL.

3. EOD Travel Expenses: Mr. [redacted] Chief of our Staff Personnel Division, and Mr. [redacted] of OER met with Civil Service Commission officials this week to present and discuss our request for approval of EOD travel benefits for economists. As a result of this meeting, we believe that GS-11 and above economists may be declared hard-to-get but that GS-07's will not. EOD travel for GS-09 economists is questionable. We expect to hear from the Commission in the near future.
